

"Making the Time for Juvenile Crime."

Global Youth Justice E-Newsletter #2

April/May 2010

APRIL/MAY, 2010

ISSUE #2

(GLOBAL CIRCULATION: 10,046)

TOP 10 IN NEWS

#10 The R-TORR Approach is now on www.GlobalYouthJustice.org.

Check out this “Volunteer Management Tool” that is helping local youth justice and youth service programs more effectively manage volunteers to include both adults and youth. The R-TORR Approach stands for Recruit, Train, Organize, Recognize and Retain, and it supports more effective and efficient adult and youth volunteer management. A wide range of programs, services and organizations are finding this approach helpful in managing volunteers of all ages. Click below to learn more http://www.globalyouthjustice.org/The_R-TORR_Approach.html

#9 Www.GlobalYouthJustice.org celebrates 25,000 unique daily visitors in just 6 months!

Scott Peterson’s website for his new Global Youth Justice, LLC is climbing the charts on a number of fronts. Daily website traffic has increased more than 35% in the past 3 months in comparison to the previous 3 months. Downloads of documents have tripled and international visitors has skyrocketed as our website analytics continue to rise. Email inquiries and subscribers to the TheMontlyNews@GlobalYouthJustice.org are all posting month to month double digit rate increases. Please visit, bookmark and link to us.

#8 The 1st Global Youth Justice Staff Institute and Retreat is this June 14-17, 2010 in Cape Cod, Massachusetts, USA. Registration will now close on or before May 15, 2010.

More than half of the rooms at this Oceanside Resort are already booked at our low contractual rates of $99 and $125 and that includes all taxes. This 1st Global Youth Justice Institute and Retreat is designed for the adult staff who currently or have previously worked full-time and/or part-time in a local youth justice program in a wide range of capacities to include operational, administrative, volunteer and support capacities. Peer training and sharing will be a primary focus of this Institute. Click here for a detailed agenda, travel instructions, and much more. And yes – plans are underway to come back next year! http://globalyouthjustice.org/Training_and_Events.html.

#7 Global Youth Justice welcomes our 3rd staff person and she hails from Syracuse, NY!

Global Youth Justice welcomes Melissa Zygmunt as our first Chief Financial Officer. Melissa will be handling our day to day financial business transactions and she hails from Syracuse, New York. Melissa joins our second staff person who came on board shortly after our official incorporation last March 10, 2009. Mr. James Olezene hails from San Antonio, Texas and he serves as both our Global Youth Justice Webmaster and our Monthly E-Newsletter Guru.

#6 Save the Date: The 2nd International Training on Establishing/Managing a local youth court, teen court, peer court, student court, and/or youth peer panel.

Global Youth Justice will convene this 2nd International Training this December 6-9, 2010 in Las Vegas, NV, USA. This training is primarily intended for those individuals who are interested in establishing one of these youth justice programs and/or existing full-time or part-time adult staff and key adult volunteers interested in more effectively managing, sustaining and/or expanding one or more of these youth justice programs. Registration opens August 1, 2010. For a reminder email – please email GlobalYouthJustice@GlobalYouthJustice.org.

#5 Encourage the adults and youth involved in your local youth justice program to get connected to the Global Youth Justice Movement. Cut and paste this short paragraph below and email it to your networks. Let us help you keep them informed and excited.

TheMonthlyNews@GlobalYouthJustice.org is the Monthly E-Newsletter of Global Youth Justice. The Global Youth Justice Monthly E-Newsletter reports on upcoming and current news and events as they relate to global expansion of local juvenile justice programs commonly referred to as youth court, teen court, peer court, student court and youth peer panel. More than 1,000 local communities on planet earth now operate these programs. Click here to subscribe. http://globalyouthjustice.org/Monthly_Newsletter.html

#4 Meet some of our “Partners and Friends”@ www.GlobalYouthJustice.org

Visit the “Partners and Friends” section of our website at Global Youth Justice. See how your local youth justice program can get involved with our partners and friends. Scott

Peterson and his new Global Youth Justice have one of the largest local, state, national and international juvenile justice networks in the business. From our list, maybe just pick a few at a time to learn more about and possibly partner with. Local youth courts, teen courts, peer courts, student courts, and youth peer panels are much more successful when they are a collaborative effort among many different local agencies, organizations, and/or groups. Some of our national partners have local affiliates and programs – and we encourage you to look at these opportunities first. Click here to see a list of our “partners and friends” <http://www.globalyouthjustice.org/Partnerships.html>

#3 Visit the News & Press Section @ Www.GlobalYouthJustice.org.

Newspapers, television and the internet are proving to be increasingly helpful to the Global Youth Justice Movement taking hold around the world. Visit our “News & Press” section on the Global Youth Justice website and take a look yourself. These 225 plus news stories and highlights share just some of the successes and struggles of the amazing adults and youth who champion these local youth justice programs in the USA, UK, Japan, Australia and a growing number of other countries. Most of these news stories were submitted by more than 125 adults and youth from local youth justice programs – thank you! Read about some of the Global Youth Justice Movement “happenings” taking place around the globe in your local community. You can read about them by clicking here: http://globalyouthjustice.org/New_Press.html.

#2 Check out the new Global Youth Justice Images and Logos on our expanding website.

More than 35 Global Youth Justice Images and Logos are now on the Global Youth Justice website. These are great for use in your announcements, flyers, youth and adult volunteer recognition certificates, on your websites and much more. From courtroom and gavel images to multi-cultural and global snapshots – we have started a collection to make your job easier. Click here <http://www.globalyouthjustice.org/Logos.php>

#1 Teen Court/Youth Court is now listed in the OJJDP’s Model Program Guide!

The Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention within the United States Department of Justice now include Teen Court/Youth Court as a model program within their OJJDP Model Programs Guide. Teen Court/Youth Court is appropriately listed as an “Immediate Sanction”. Local youth justice programs should share this with the adults and youth involved in your program. Click and bookmark this site for future reference: http://www2.dsgonline.com/mpg/program_types_description.aspx?program_type=Teen/Youth%20Court&continuum=immediate

Scott Peterson’s Quote of the Month

"Stop looking for yourself and start creating yourself"

Scott Peterson's Video Clip of the Month

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=V1bFr2SWP1I&annotation_id=annotation_460088&feature=iv

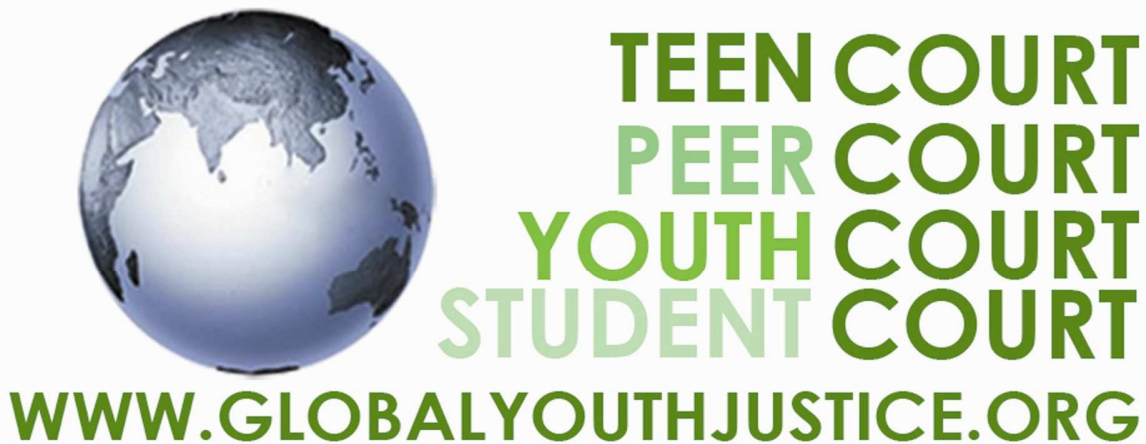

Please circulate TheMonthlyNews@GlobalYouthJustice.org to the youth and adults in your networks.

Subscribe to the monthly news by clicking here http://globalyouthjustice.org/Monthly_Newsletter.html

Please submit news ideas, questions and/or comments to TheMonthlyNews@GlobalYouthJustice.org

Visit, bookmark and link to the Global Youth Justice @ http://globalyouthjustice.org/Home_Page.php

For more information, please contact GlobalYouthJustice@GlobalYouthJustice.org

“Making the Time for Juvenile Crime.”

