#9 Global Youth Service Day is this April 15-17, 2011.
Global Youth Service Day is coordinated by our friends over at Youth Service America. Global Youth Service Day is the largest service event in the world and hundreds of local Youth Justice programs have participated in the past decade. Global Youth Service Day takes place over three (3) days and Global Youth Justice encourages local Youth Justice programs to plan projects which involve youth and adult volunteers to include current and former youthful offenders who have appeared in a local Youth Justice program for sentencing and disposition by their peers. ## #8 Youth Justice USA sets Five (5) Measurable Objectives for 2020.

Global Youth Justice's Youth Justice USA passed a resolution on January 1, 2011 for purposes of adopting five (5) measurable objectives for 2020. These five (5) measurable objectives are for the United States of America and they have been included in the Global Youth Justice 2020 Plan, which now includes Global and USA objectives. Check out the 2020 Plan at the Global Youth Justice Website.

#7 New Youth Justice RESOLUTIONS PASSED Button has been added to the Global Youth Justice Website.

The American Bar Association passed a resolution supporting the expansion and operation of Youth Justice programs on February 14, 2011. This is the seventh (7th) resolution passed in support of Youth Justice programs since 1995. At Global Youth Justice we frequently receive request for copies of one or more of these resolutions, so we created a new button on the Global Youth Justice website dedicated to resolutions passed in support of Youth Justice programs.

#6 Law Day takes place this May 1, 2011.

The 2011 Law Day theme is "The Legacy of John Adams: from Boston to Guantanamo". Law Day is among the most popular Global/National Campaigns celebrated by local Youth Justice programs. Our friends at the Division for Public Education at the American Bar Association coordinate annual Law Day Celebrations and Events. The 2011 Law Day Planning Guide is now available and it is free – click on the Law Day Button at the Global Youth Justice Website for this free Action Guide and more. ## #5 New FREE Training Resources Button as been added to the Global Youth Justice Website.

Global Youth Justice receives about twenty-five (25) training and technical assistance related questions a week from individuals all around the globe. We are striving to consistently improve the Global Youth Justice website and make as many things FREE, as we possibly can. This new FREE Training Resources button is among our latest efforts to help individuals and communities Establish, Enhance or Expand a Youth Justice program. #### #3 Does Your Youth Justice Program refer Youthful Offenders and/or Youth Volunteers for Mentoring Services?

OJJDP is funding a research project to examine how juvenile justice system involved youth are referred for mentoring services. One of the six (6) juvenile justice settings is Youth Justice diversion and intervention programs often referred to as Youth Court, Teen Court, Peer Court, Student Court or Youth Peer Panel. If you work or volunteer in one of these programs and the program refers youth for mentoring services, please let us know. We have a new prize for referral information that results in us confirming a Youth Justice program makes referrals for mentoring services. Email Scott.Peterson@GlobalYouthJustice.org

#2 Global Youth Justice Website passed 100,000 Visitors!

The Global Youth Justice website has passed 100,000 unique daily visitors since its launch on October 1, 2009. We started with seven (7) buttons and we are up to twenty-six (26) buttons. The Global Youth Justice Website will always be a work in progress. We do not have a lot of money to make it fancy, so we strive to make it practical and useful and more than 1,000 youth and adults have sent us web links and news stories and we are glad to see so many people checking it out. Bookmark, Visit and Link to us and don't forget to join our GYJ Monthly e-news. If you are reading this and you got this directly from us – you are already subscribed.
